Fargo, representing the editors of American newspapers published in foreign languages. Fargo in a statement said Bryan had already given him the impression that if the trip were undertaken Bryan himself "will for the love of the cause sacrifice his time and pay his own expenses."

Water Level Is Commencing To Recede In River

Gang of Men At Work Rip-Rapping Bank On North Side Below Dam

The stage of water in Rock river at Dixon has started to recede, having fallen more than an inch at noon from the point it had reached during the night. At 1 o'clock the head water at the millrace was ten feet, two inches, while the tail water was four feet, nine inches. The tail water was about three inches higher than yesterday at the same hour. The indications now are that the water will continue to fall.

Superintendent of Streets Geo. Gitt started this morning with a force of men and team to rip-rap the north bank of the river just below the dam where the recent fill was made and now has the bank protected so there is no danger of the water washing the loose dirt away. The bank will be rip-rapped to the top of the fill in order to protect it from floating ice in the spring.

The practice of driving with cut-out open is very annoying to residents.

[The allies' financial commission, sent to this country from Great Britain and France to negotiate a loan or credit, the probable amount of which, according to American financiers, will be in excess of $500,000,000 at a conservative estimate, reached New York on the White Star liner Lapland. Within a few hours after their arrival the commissioners were in council with more than 100 representative American financiers. J. P. Morgan's library on Thirty-sixth street, between Madison and Park avenues, which in the fall of 1907 provided a setting for meetings of the most important men in Wall street to contrive ways and means to check the financial disaster of that period, was the scene of the meeting. Conveyances rolled up to the library in an uninterrupted procession and from them stepped bankers, railroad men, heads of insurance companies and others well known in the financial world. The six foreign commissioners were among the first to arrive. They were received by Mr. Morgan and Henry P. Davison of J. P. Morgan & Co. The commission has four representatives from Great Britain and two from France. The British members are Baron Reading, lord chief justice, chairman; Sir Edward Hopkins Holden, chairman of the London City and Midland bank; Sir Henry Babington Smith, president of the National Bank of Turkey, and Basil P. Brackett, a British treasury expert, who is the secretary of the commission. The French commissioners are Octave Homberg of the French treasury and Ernest Mallet, a regent of the Bank of France.]

Those who have never had the opportunity to travel in the west should avail themselves to see these pictures and they can gain some idea of the natural beauties of the Rocky Mountain country.

WET WEATHER IS TROUBLESOME

Carpenters on New Work Find Windows and Doors Badly Swollen

Carpenters at work on new houses report that this summer has been an exceptionally bad one for all kinds of mill and finishing work, and especially for the proper fitting of doors and windows. The wet weather has caused the lumber to swell to such an extent that considerable planing has had to be done, and the chances are that there will be a lot of loose windows in these new houses when furnaces fires have been maintained a few weeks.

William Fritz was here today from DeKalb calling on acquaintances in this city.

BARBERS INNOCENT IN WATCH AFFAIR

NO GROUNDS FOR INSINUATING THAT THEY TOOK WATCH FROM MAN.

In Monday evening's Telegraph an article was published about the loss of a watch by a man who claimed he lost it in a barber shop in this city. The watch was subsequently returned and the article in the paper said that the affair was simply a joke and that the people who took the watch returned it. It develops that the whole affair was incorrectly reported and that the proprietors of the barber shop, who have always borne excellent reputations and who are above suspicion, had absolutely nothing to do with the affair. The barbers were absolutely innocent of having any connection with the trouble and the Telegraph is glad to have this opportunity to clear them of any suspicion that might have been caused by the newspaper articles.

The statement by the reporter that "The party who had the watch contended that it was only taken as a joke, but it came near being an expensive joke," had absolutely no foundation of truth and the insinuation is found by the Telegraph, by incontestable evidence, to be altogether incorrect. The Telegraph is convinced by the clearest possible evidence that to connect the barbers with the affair in any way whatsoever would be a gross injustice.

MARINE BAND CONCERT TONIGHT

The Dixon Marine band will give a concert this evening in John Dixon park in North Dixon. The big improvement in the weather and the always good reputation of the band will bring out a large crowd. The Grand Detour Plow Co. Thursday turned down the sixth offer that has been made by a syndicate to acquire the factory for the manufacture of war materials. ## REAL HORSE SHOW IS OPEN AT STATE FAIR

EXCLUSION OF RUMINANTS HAS BROUGHT MORE HORSES THAN WERE EXPECTED

AUTOMOBILE RACING ON TODAY

(Associated Press)

Springfield, Ill., Sept. 17—With the usual clamor for toy balloons, lemonade and peanut vendors, but minus the bellowing, bleating, squealing of cattle, sheep and swine, the Illinois State Fair opened here today.

Dawn found automobile racers and their mechanics out on the fast mile track tuning up their cars in the pad dock the gaunt biplane of Art Smith was being articulated by skilled workmen under the watchful eyes of the youthful aviator.

Horses filled the cattle pens in addition to crowding the stables usually assigned to them. Secretary Davison of the state board of agriculture in commenting on this said: "The action of the board in excluding all ruminants from the fair because of the prevalence of foot and mouth disease resulted in making this a real horse fair. We have twice as many horses as we expected."

Today and tomorrow are to be given over to automobile racing and many of the stars of the game are here to win the money prizes offered by the state. Among them are Louis Dishrow and Eddie Hearne.

Monday the Great Western Circuit racing program begins and is to continue all week. Most of the racing animals will not arrive from Milwaukee, where they are racing this week, until Monday.

UNCLE SAM ISSUES WARNING ON CORN

ADVISES FARMERS TO PAY SPECIAL ATTENTION TO NEXT YEAR'S SEED.

The United States Department of Agriculture has issued a special bulletin on corn under date of Sept. 16, which says:

Owing to the generally backward state of this year's corn crop in many of the northern but important growing sections of the belt, there is danger of injury to the crop by killing frost, the occurrence of which may be expected at any time. It is therefore important that every effort should be made to secure good seed for next year's crop. Where any last year's corn is left it should be gone over and the best ears saved. Moreover, as corn matures unevenly, it is possible to secure seed from the early ears before the rest of the crop is matured.

Vest Pocket Essays By GEORGE FITCH Author of 'At Good Old Siwash' THE TRAMP STEAMER.

A tramp steamer is the only kind of a tramp for which a use has been found so far. Like other tramps, it has a home, but never goes there. But unlike other tramps its nose is seldom painted. Tramp steamers do not have gilt and white cabins and are not infested with millionaires and chorus girls returning from Europe on their frugal vacations. They are plain, awkward boats, as fat in the bows as a canal boat, an dnf a vacuum cleaner were turned on them after a trip, they would pan out more dirt than a Vermont farm has. But in their homely, diffident way they carry the ocean commerce of the world and enable the frugal housewife of America to buy English needles, because they come a cent a pound cheaper. The ocean liner travels back and forth between two ports, until she has worn a furrow in the map But the tramp steamer plows through the water from Liverpool to Melbourne and thence to Rorotonga, Shanghai, Unalaska, Papeete, Reykjavik, Delagoa, Natanzas, Terre del Fuego, Tsuruga, Libau and other freckles on the map, which can only be found by a real good geography scholar. Tramp steamers have carried enough wheat to Europe during the last year to feed 50,000,000 people. That shows the foolishness of their name. If they were real tramps they would not be carrying food. They would be panhandling it from port to port.

There are many thousands of tramp steamers in the world. Some of them are small and some are big enough to carry the crops of a whole country in one cargo. But practically none of them fly the United States flag. This is because the steamer which flies the United States flag has to pay its crew American wages and feed them civilized food. After the crew of an ordinary tramp steamer get over a three-months trip they sometimes go out and become real hobos for the sheer luxury of it.

Some people think the age of adventure will be over when the last war ceases. But so long as men can nurse rickety old steamers with rheumatic engines and weak backs through winter gales on the five oceans and row blithely to shore 556 miles by pedometer in an open boat with one day's board in her locker, when the said rickety steamer has flopped to the bottom, there will be some variety in life left for those who can't bear comfort and safety.

Why You Should Belong To United Spanish War Veterans

At the request of members of Bald win Camp U. S. W. V. of this city and District Inspector Fred Brown of Sterling, who visited the local camp this week, the following article is published:

It is the National organization to which every comrade enlisting in the U. S. Army or Navy during the war with Spain or the Philippine insurrection between April 26, 1898, and July 4, 1902, is eligible to membership; the U. S. W. V. includes them all, whether you fought a battle or not; battles are not what created the spirit of patriotism which impelled you to enlist. If you were unfortunate enough to miss active duty during the war, you are, nevertheless, eligible to join us; there is no discrimination; you were probably as good a soldier or sailor as the one who fought many battles, and you may have made a better one, if given the opportunity. Our organization looks upon all alike. One comrade does not boast of excelling the other in amount of service rendered. This is by no means provided to exploit our own deeds, but to set an example, make better citizens and bind ourselves together so that mutual benefits may result. The greatest individual benefits can be derived from the strongest organizations. Banded together in one great, grand fraternity, we secured what a divided force could not. Be one of an organization which has for its purpose the perpetuation of the spirit of the G. A. R., and the comradeship formed while we served together for our country. We are endeavoring to have the pension laws amended so that if ever you are physically unable to earn a living, the Government will provide a pension for you. Civil Service preference for veterans is an established fact. We have a law which makes it the duty of the county to bury you and the U. S. Government gives you a headstone. The city within which you are buried must forever care for your grave. The mother or widow you leave behind will not suffer or want or go to the poorhouse, but a Camp Commander will secure all she needs from the county and she will be supplied at her own home. The country must bury her at her death. Your orphans will not be forsaken, but will receive the same care as above mentioned for the widow. This assistance comes through a Camp Commander, and if YOU do not belong to a camp, how can a Camp Commander take care of you and yours? It is our organization that has made this possible for you.

Go into a camp at once and if there is no camp in your city, get enough men to organize a camp. It needs only ten men to form a camp. Do not delay any longer; get into one of the camps that is located in the city nearest to you or start out at once and organize one in your own city.

Any information desired will be cheerfully given, so do not delay. MARTIN SIPLE, Adjutant Department of Illinois. Headquarters, 106 S. Liberty St., Elgin, Ill.

One Day Only—Storm or Fair Noted Healer's Work Astonishes Everywhere—His Mission a Labor of Love.

HEALING GIFT BORN WITH HIM.

"Among the many remarkable features about Rev. Dr. Hawkins, the healing genius of modern times, is the extraordinary amount of attention he attracts everywhere he appears. The crowds that have been flocking to him have simply been enormous. The hotels in Galesburg, Springfield, Decatur, Quincy, Champaign and other cities would often wish to close their doors. There seemed already more than could be accommodated. Sufferers would come from far and near, all with ailments of one sort or another. All were treated. None were turned away—be they rich or be they poor."

REV. DR. HAWKINS.

Better Known as the "Healing Genius." Because of the Great Numbers He Has Healed. Rheumatism.—Throws His Old Crooked Cane Away and Walks, Though Past 80. —On leaving the Healer's Treating Rooms and walking briskly, pushing his way through the waiting crowd on his way out, aged Dr. Hamilton, East St. Louis, Ill., was heard to exclaim: "I never felt better in my life. You talk saw how I came in—look at me now. I feel that I could jump across the street and fly."

Another Case.—Miss Lottie Bush, Revere, Heights, Ill., suffered so with Rheumatism she had to be turned in bed. She could not move or feed herself; no one expected her to live, for nothing had cured her. Her doctors said she had no blood—it had all turned to water. However, without seeing the patient, through the silent or distant healing by Rev. Dr. Hawkins, Miss Bush soon jumped out of bed, shouting and praising the Lord for her "miraculous" recovery.

Gallstones.—Mrs. Mary C. Allen, 508 Seventh avenue, Peoria, Ill., suffered agonies for more than twenty years with violent attacks of Gallstones and a complication of other diseases. She had tried doctor after doctor only to continue to grow worse. She was operated on twice, but it did not cure her. She grew despondent and felt she could not live. Yet in one treatment from Rev. Dr. Hawkins she became as well as ever, and a few days later pronounced herself permanently cured.

Stomach Trouble.—Mr. T. B. Hanna, 206 Jackson street, Peoria, Ill., suffered everything for forty-five years with the worst kind of Stomach Trouble, Constipation, Nervousness and Disordered Liver. He could not keep anything on his stomach. He was so weak and nervous that he could not help himself. He thought he would die. One doctor told him that he had Consumption; another that he had Diabetes; they did not know. Yet, after a single treatment, Mr. Hanna pronounced himself cured. He says: "I was cured after the first treatment. Look at me now. I am not like I used to be. I'm getting younger every day."

Fits.—Mr. Clayton Snyder, 300 South Fourteenth street, Pekin, Ill., endured the agonies of Epileptic Fits for years. His relatives lived in terror lest he be seized with his dreadful spells when near dangerous machinery. This patient also pronounced himself cured by Rev. Dr. Hawkins, and his fits stopped promptly, and he became healthy and well.

Eye Trouble.—Mr. W. H. Campbell, Cayuga, Ind., suffered everything with eye trouble; could get no cure. Comes to Rev. Dr. Hawkins. Says: "One treatment did the work of restoring my sight and I feel that other sick folks may be healed as I was."

There is no use allowing your lack of understanding to keep you away and prevent you from being healed. Come, investigate and convince yourself. There are more things even in this world than man has ever dreamed.

What Is This Peculiar Power?—Committee after committee of worldly scientists, from Bible times down to the present, have bent every effort to discover, if possible, the nature of this healing power. "It is a Divine Gift," says Rev. Dr. Hawkins. "Power to heal the sick and afflicted comes from above. It is a Divine Gift. Without the help of God, I could do nothing. I am only an instrument in His hands." Let the doubters doubt, and the scoffers scoff, but the truth is mighty.

Is a Friend to the Poor and Afflicted—A Grand Opportunity.—Sick folks, see the Healer on his visit to our city. You may here have the golden opportunity to regain the greatest of all human blessings—Good Health. Take advantage of it while you have the opportunity. If you don't, you may regret it.

The Healer's work is sustained by the free-will offerings of the grateful people who are free to give to his expenses, as they feel they can afford—little or much—that rests with you.

All Things Possible With God, You May Be Healed.—No matter what your ailments may be, and how often your case has been pronounced hopeless, you may here have the opportunity to regain the color in your cheeks, the sparkle in your eyes, the smile on your face, and the joy in your heart that says so much and means so much—that bloom of human perfectness.

Prefers Difficult Cases.—Rev. Dr. Hawkins says: "I prefer to treat the difficult cases, those that have utterly refused to yield to any other treatment whatever. Consultation free. No medicine or instruments used.

Large Crowds Expected.—Call early. Patients from a distance or out of town will also receive prompt attention to return home the same day. Remember, one day only, regardless of the weather. Admittance will direct all to the Healer's Treating Rooms.

The Healer himself welcomes all sufferers to come to him on that day, rich and poor alike.

Attorney Johnson of Rockford was here today representing some of the land owners who have raised objection to the ninth assessment in the Inlet Swamp drainage district.

Dramatic Notes

AT THE FAMILY THEATRE

There is a most attractive and entertaining vaudeville bill at the Family Theatre for the remainder of this week, which coupled with the excellent pictures afford an evening of great pleasure to theatre goers. Misses Ellsworth and Adams, dainty bits of femininity, give a musical act, most pleasing and satisfying. Keegan and Ellsworth, have a snappy and entertaining sketch which appeals to lovers of good vaudeville. In both these acts the gowns worn are beautiful models of the modiste's art. The Sardonis, gentleman and lady, give a funny bit of acting interspersed with lightning illustrations drawn by both, and they finish an evening of delightful pleasure. Don't miss the last half of the week show at the Family, a generous offering.

PRINCESS THEATRE.

Tonight a two reel American feature entitled "The Divine Decree" with Ed Coxen and Winifred Greenwood in the leading roles, will be shown at the Princess theatre, the story of a child taken away from a life of crime to the country and later falls in love with one of her old associates. The other pictures are the Mutual Weekly showing the current events throughout the world and a comic comedy, "Showing Stockings," with Fay Tincher in the leading role, in which Fay Tincher finds a substitute in hose.

Mrs. James N. Sterling accompanied her son Norman Sterling as far as Chicago this morning, he being on his way to school in the east.

County Treasurer John E. Moyer was in Amboy today to take in the great Lee county fair.

might be done. At noon in Dixon there is absolutely no pleasant place open to the working girls who must take their dinner down town. Even the public library is closed at noon. Girls employed in the stores must either go back to their places of work and again start waiting upon customers without any nooning or while away their noons at other stores standing in the doorways, or hanging on to a bit of counter for a rest. The factory girls are better off, for work as a rule absolutely stops during the noon hour at a factory and some have their rest rooms.

Horticulturists' Program

Lowering skies somewhat diminished the usual large gathering of the members of the Rock River Horticultural Society at their annual fall festival, but at least thirty sat down at the long table loaded with good things. The meeting was held in Assembly park on the lawn adjacent to the cottage of Mrs. Harriet McKinstry, whose guests they were. After dinner, the skies clearing, the numbers were augmented by many more who came to hear the program, a program harking back to the days of the early pioneers in horticulture in the Rock River valley.

Following the calling of the meeting to order by the president, Charles Lawton, a trio consisting of Mrs. Lee Read, Mrs. Frank Ballou and Clinton Fahrney sang "Auld Lang Syne" and as an encore, "Long, Long Ago." In a carefully prepared paper read by LeRoy Galt of Sterling, Dr. Lott Pennington of Sterling, the first to start (in the year 1849) an orchard near Sterling, was discussed. Dr. Pennington, a physician, a man of many and varied interests, devoted much time to the improvement of things in general and to experimenting with fruit in particular. Horticulture here then was practically an experiment, anyhow. Rabbits, so plentiful then, proved to be great pests in the worthy doctor's orchard, but he finally succeeded in establishing a fine orchard, part of which still remains. General discussion of the paper followed, many adding stories of interest in regard to the doctor.

Before the second paper of the program, "Clark Powell," by Mrs. Charles Hey, the trio sang, "The Belle of the Mohawk Vale," followed by the encore, another old song, "Believe Me If All the Enchanting Charms." Clark Powell was one of the first nurserymen in this part of the country, in 1850 starting a nursery just east of Sterling on the 30-acre plot still in the hands of the Powell family. Mr. Powell was successful in his undertaking and was considered one of the first in his chosen work. He was a member of the state horticultural society, a charter member of the Northern Illinois Horticultural Society and it was at his home twenty years ago that the R. R. Valley Horticultural Society held its first meeting.

This was in June and it was not until fall at the J. L. Hartwell home in this city that the society formally organized.

Mrs. Lee Read closed the program by the reading of the appropriate poem, "Fifty Years Ago When We Were Pioneers." The election of officers and appointment of committees followed. Charles Lawton was re-elected president; Charles Hey, vice-president, and Mrs. Charles Hey, secretary-treasurer; Mrs. Burt Swartz was made chairman of the social committee; Abram Ackert of the program committee; Mrs. Sylvester Royer of Sterling of the flower committee; Mrs. William Hartshorn of Nelson of the members' committee; and Mrs. Thummel and Mrs. Warren Powers, both of Sterling, were chosen as a committee to decide a meeting place for the next session which will be held in Sterling.

The gathering broke up after tendering a vote of thanks to Mrs. McKinstry for her hospitality and to the trio for their kind services in singing the old time songs.

ADVOCATES OF PREPAREDNESS.

Ex-Senator Burton of Ohio, who is president of the American Peace society, has a conception of peace and of the best ways to maintain it that is very acceptable in these days. He has come out with the statement that he favors adequate national defense. Inasmuch as Mr. Burton may be a candidate for the republican nomination for president, his declaration is not without political significance, but it is even more interesting as separating him from peace at any price advocates. He wants peace that carries with it the assurance of continued peace, not a mere truce or a postponement of hostilities. Animated by this desire he favors the construction of a large navy built for defense, including dreadnaughts and a liberal contingent of high-powered submarines.

The reasons which Mr. Burton gives for the belief that is in him are interesting. If the war has no decisive result, if it terminates in a standoff, Mr. Burton thinks that conclusions may be all the worse for the world. The armies will go home for rest and recuperation; prepare all over again for the finish fight, and we may see heavier armaments than ever. On the other hand if the war is fought to a finish the nations may be so nearly exhausted that they will be heartily sick of "militarism," and the world be relieved from the necessity of sleeping on its arms. But whichever is the result of this war, Mr. Burton is convinced that our best course and our best insurance is adequate preparation by land and sea. He emphasizes "adequate" because he would differentiate himself from the extreme alarmists. He is not alarmed at all, but he thinks that it would be the most foolish thing in the world for us to do not to take precautions while we have the margin of time for taking them.

Mr. Burton's tactical and strategic theories are not quite as acceptable as his general principles. He emphasizes the defensive capabilities of the United States prepared for war. He goes so far as to say that we should build for defensive, not offensive operations. This may sound well to those who would attempt the impossible task of getting up a big scheme of defense without spending much money, but to the student of military history Senator Burton's reservation will not commend itself. The offensive is very often the speediest and most effective defensive. The United States would be much better equipped for insuring peace if it was qualified to send a great fleet to defeat invaders in the midst of the ocean, rather than to wait until they came to the mouths of our harbors and then attempt to turn them back.

THE CHARM OF JEWELS.

A Chicago society woman in the hospital with injuries inflicted by a robber in a struggle to wrest from her some thousands of dollars of jewelry? Mrs. Nichols murdered by servants for her jewels on the same day in New York City!

What is there in the diamond that will make women risk their lives to possess a large number? It is not half as beautiful as the morning sun in a dew-drop. Can the reason be that so few women have enough money to buy them? They are evidence of the purchasing power of the possessor. Most women who have many diamonds want them because their friends have many diamonds. The most difficult thing in the world is to be different. Our class distinctions cost us more than we know.—N. Y. Mail.

BUILD THE ROADS NOW.

It would be a better plan to build all the brick roads that we will need in Lee county at once than to build a mile a year for the next two or three hundred years, for brick and labor are as cheap now as they ever will be and the present citizens of the county may as well be using these roads that are bound to come sooner or later. The big bond issue is the solution to the problem. We can use the roads while we are paying for them, instead of saving up the money before hand and wading through the mud meanwhile.

THE NAVY NEEDED.

A forty-battleship navy, which the naval board urged years ago was the right proposition when first suggested. Having been given its object-lesson, perhaps the present congress will grasp the significance of the proposition.—Baltimore American.

Three more prisoners (?) have escaped from Joliet. We call it ungrateful of the mean old things to leave that way, after such a long visit, and never even say goodbye. Fourteen men have escaped from Joliet since Warden Allen resigned.

COLONEL SMITH'S CANDIDACY.

Republicans of the Seventeenth congressional district, central Illinois and down-state generally, will be pleased to learn that the candidacy of Colonel Frank L. Smith, of Dwight, for governor, is making real headway. Colonel Smith is the only candidate thus far definitely announced, but in spite of the fact that the primary is more than a year in the future his appearance in the field has already created a state-wide interest.

As regards the Seventeenth congressional sional district, where Colonel Smith is most intimately known, Republicans, of course, will heartily endorse his candidacy. His home county of Livingston already has gone on record as practically unanimous for him and there is little question that sentiment in the other counties of the district is equally favorable. The sentiment of his home district, thus crystallized, cannot fail to lend great impetus to his general canvass and it is certain that his claims will be strengthened as the campaign progresses.

Manifestly, Colonel Smith has strong qualifications for the office of governor. His demonstrated unusual business ability, his unquestioned integrity and courage and his wide knowledge of affairs are points that will not escape public attention. It has been demonstrated in recent years that the governor of a great state like Illinois should be a man of thorough business ability. Many questions come before him which should be determined altogether on strictly business principles and which require a practical, level-headed business man. Colonel Smith possesses these requirements in a peculiar degree, while in the broader fields of governmental questions he is exceptionally well informed and his practical common-sense will stand him in good stead on that part of the ground.

While Colonel Smith has made success in business it is worthy of note that he has accomplished this single-handed and on his individual merit without being connected in any way with great corporate interests. As governor this would leave him free to deal disinterestedly with highly important matters which are often affected in some way by corporate influence. This is a strong point in his favor.

The Pantagraph cordially supports Colonel Smith for governor, being thoroughly convinced that he would make a safe and wise executive who would have regard for the best interests of all the people of the state at all times. Illinois needs such men in its service. — Bloomington Pantagraph.—Advertisement.

A scramble dinner was served at 7 o'clock in cafeteria fashion from a long table. To say that the dinner was replete with good things hardly gives an idea of the abundance of ev erything good in the edible line, for there was fried chicken and all the accessories. A short program was given after dinner, Misses Missman of North Dixon gave a piano duet, Miss Myrtle Andersson a vocal solo, and Miss Deloris Shawger a piano solo, Mr. Missman a cornet solo. Ev ery number on the program was greatly appreciated. ## JOLT TO PACKERS NOT UNEXPECTED

Appeal from Prize Court on Meat Will Be Taken.

$15,000,000 IS CONDEMNED

British Tribunal Renders Decision on Big U. S. Cargoes on Four Ships— Says Supplies Were Destroyed to Germany—State Department May Be Appealed to Later.

London, Sept. 17.—A. R. Union, rep resentative of the Chicago packers, speaking with reference to the prize court decisions concerning the Amer ican packers' products, said:

"Our intention is to carry the mat ter to an appeal to the privy council which meets in October. Should this appeal fail, which we hope it will not, then it will be necessary for the American state department to conduct diplomatic negotiations concerning our products. If the two governments are unable to agree it will probably be necessary eventually to appoint an international commission."

Involves $15,000,000.

The amount involved in the Brit ish prize court decision is 3,000,000 pounds. As far as the American pack ers are concerned, their feeling is considerably aroused by the fact that the greater part of the product, if sold at auction, will bring prices lower than the actual cost of production in Chicago.

Decision Was Looked For.

Washington, Sept. 17.—Much inter est was expressed at the state depart ment in the reports of the decision of the British prize courts in the cases of the American packers whose goods to the value of more than $15,000,000 are now under orders of confiscation by the British government.

The adverse decision of the court in the majority of the claims arising from the cases of the four ships in volved was no surprise here. It had been anticipated as a result of the proceedings before the court. There is reason to believe that the decision does not come as a surprise to the packers themselves. While interested in the case not only because of the principles involved but also because of its magnitude and the volume of American trade likely to be effected thereby, the state department has taken no direct or official part in it.

M. Ribot, Minister of Finance, Calls For New Credit.

Paris, Sept. 17.—The government introduced a bill calling to the colors the class of 1917, the date to be fixed by the minister of war. The bill also provides that the class of 1888 hold themselves in readiness for service at the disposition of the war minister until the end of the war.

The government bill, which probably will be passed at once, without debate, brings to the colors French youths of eighteen years and orders men of forty-seven years who are still fit for service to hold themselves in readiness.

About 250,000 French boys, many of them now in school, may be ordered to training camps to prepare for the trenches under the provisions of the act.

Minister of Finance Ribot's memorandum accompanying the bill introduced in the chamber of deputies appropriating $1,240,000,000 for the expenses of the last quarter of the year, says France already has advanced $150,000,000 to her allies.

According to the most recent financial reports, M. Ribot said, "the average monthly war expenses of Russia were $360,000,000; Germany's monthly war expenses approach $500,000,000, while Great Britain's exceed this amount."

Minister Ribot concluded by alluding to the early issue of a national loan.

SUCH EVIDENCE OUR READERS CANNOT DISPUTE

As we take up the Telegraph week by week, we are struck by the hearty unmistakable way in which witness after witness speaks out as Mrs. Fine does here. If these people were strangers living miles away, we might take little notice of them. But they are not. They are our neighbors living among us. Their word is too easily proven to admit of any doubt. They speak out in the hope that their experience may be a guide to others.

Mrs. J. L. Fine, 1006 Peoria Ave., Dixon says: "I have suffered for years from kidney trouble. My back ached and pained so severely that I had to stay in bed. I had headaches and dizzy spells and specks appeared before my eyes. My wrists and ankles also swelled. I procured Doan's Kidney Pills at Leake Bros. Co's. Drug store and they helped me. They have never failed to give satisfactory results."

WAR LOAN MAY BE HALF BILLION

Expressions from Various U. S. Interests Differ.

ROCKEFELLER ASKED TO JOIN

Cotton Growers Will Take Collaterals on Warehouse Receipts—Wheat Growers Want Money, Being Educated to Plan—Munition Men Want Gold—Loan Is Assured.

New York, Sept. 17.—The impression is spreading in financial circles that the Anglo-French financial mission may be satisfied to establish a credit for their countries of less than one billion dollars, the figure originally given.

Various sums are mentioned as the true one, these varying all the way from $800,000,000 down to $500,000,000. It may be emphatically stated, however, that nothing came from the members of the mission itself, indicating that they are willing to accept any less sum than the one first set forth. The reductions were made by American bankers who admit that they are expressing a personal opinion. It is added significantly by one man that while they might take $500,000,000 there is nothing to prevent them from coming back for another such sum next year if the war continues. The advantages of such a huge credit to the growers of wheat, corn, oats and other grains as well as to cotton growers will become so well understood by that time that the task will be easier. To all practical purposes substantially the same money will be ready for reinvestment.

Upon one thing the American bankers are all agreed and that is that so far the mission has stood firm on the principle that the indebtedness must be in one form—straight bonds of England and France jointly without collateral security but having priority over every form of national indebtedness of the two countries including all war loans. On the question of interest there is general agreement that the mission stands firm on 5 per cent. That does not mean that the countries would receive the full face of the loan, for it was generally thought that the commission of the syndicate will make the interest to be paid 5½ per cent. The position seems to be that the ideas of the Anglo-French mission have become well known to American financiers and they have expressed their views. Not all the American bankers have been heard from and there are engagements running some days ahead for them to do so.

Loan May Be in Three Parts.

It is said that every man or every section has a different opinion and desires to express it. The banks from the wheat growing sections appear to be fairly well educated to the necessity for the loan. The cotton section wants money and desires it upon their warehouse receipts. The manufacturers, particularly of munitions of war, want gold. Out of those diversified expressions has risen the report that the loan may be in three parts. One portion of it for commodities is to be without collateral. A second portion for cotton is to be based on the warehouse receipts, and a third, for munitions, is to have a form of collateral.

John D. Jr. Aids Loan.

New York, Sept. 17.—Standard Oil millionaires, including John D. Rockefeller Jr., it is reported, are considering the terms of the proposed billion dollar credit loan to Great Britain and France with a view to participating.

Details of the proposed loans have been placed before Mr. Rockefeller and his associates, it is said, by J. P. Morgan, the fiscal agent in this country of Great Britain and France. Mr. Morgan called at the Standard Oil offices. Other conferences, it is said, are being held.

CANNON LEAVES IT TO PARTY

"Uncle Joe" Willing to Be Candidate for Congressman at Large.

Danville, Ill., Sept. 17.—At the Iroquois county fair at Watseka, Joseph G. Cannon indicated he would be a candidate for congressman at large from Illinois. The former speaker stated he is in the hands of the party; that the party had done much for him and that he can do no less than lend assistance in the coming campaign. He indicated also that he would be a candidate from this district, if desired, or that he would get out of the way for any other Republican if such course is required.

CLOSED BY CATTLE SCOURGE

Three More Townships in Du Page County, Ill., Quarantined.

Washington, Sept. 17.—Wayne, Bloomington and Addison townships, in Du Page county, Illinois, are placed in quarantine for live stock foot and mouth disease by a department of agriculture order.

No cases of the disease have been discovered in the townships, but they are closed on account of their proximity to infected sections.
